A more just, loving, and sustainable world

How can you help ensure a vibrant Unitarian Universalist presence in North Texas for future generations?

The most common legacy is a bequest from your estate, but that's not the only way.

You can also give while you're still around to enjoy your gift being used. How?

Donations of:

- Real estate, a business, or other assets
- Appreciated stock
- Life insurance policies
- 401Ks and IRAs

A bit of advice on bequests:

Whether you're giving to us or another organization, please use the full legal name in your will.

If you spell out North Texas Unitarian Universalist Congregations we can avoid a legal mess in which lawyers would get a big share of the money.

Will you help us to light chalicees for decades to come? It just takes a little planning.

A gift can establish institutions that last decades longer than any of us, even into the next century. Would you like to help ensure that the message of our life-saving faith continues to thrive for generations of Unitarian Universalists?

At our congregations and elsewhere, gifts have:

- Assisted in the founding of colleges and universities, enriched their offerings and campuses, and supported countless students.
- Helped some of our churches acquire land and build facilities.
- Created the Ned Fritz Scholarship for Environmental Studies.
- Made possible the founding of the UBarU Camp & Retreat Center in the Texas Hill Country.
- Aided churches and organizations in the creation of staff positions.
- Launched an untold number of programs for the arts, scientific research, and social services.
- Instituted social justice projects.
- Sponsored concerts, radio and television programs, and festivals.
- Established public radio and television stations.
- Sent countless children and youth to camp!
